Santa Claus, Spouse Add To Festivity

CHRISTMAS CHEER WILL be extended to the entire student body and faculty tomorrow when the Student Christian Fellowship presents an informal open-house Christmas party. It will be held in the Religious Building, 2106 G Street, N. W., from 3 to 5:30 p.m. Faculty and student members will participate in the festivities.

Scheduled to attend the party are Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, actually faculty members incognito; a Faculty Quartet, composed of Professors Roderic H. Davison, Lawrence D. Folkemer, L. C. Keating and Leroy S. Merrifield, and the George Washington Glee Club, who will present a program of Christmas carols. Refreshments will be served during the party, after which there will be group carol singing. In addition, there will be a Christmas tree.

The annual University Christmas Tree Lighting and Carol Singing, officiated by Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, professor of religion, was held last night on the Lisner Terrace. The feature of the program was the raising of a five-foot illuminated star presented to the University by the Engineering School.

The Glee Club began the program by processing to the terrace singing "O Come All Ye Faithful." The tree was presented and lighted, followed by community singing. The Glee Club sang two selections and Dr. Lawrence D. Folkemer read the Christmas story from St. Luke. Dr. Sizoo spoke on "The Meaning of Christmas in 1952."

Hatchet Convenes

Have you thought you would like to write for the HATCHET? The HATCHET can always use new blood.

This week's meeting will be TONIGHT, at 7:35 p.m. in Monroe Building, room 306. The speaker will be Cody Pfanstiel, Director of Press Relations for the Columbia Broadcasting System in the Washington area.

Seniors—Try For Scholarship Gifts

DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING essays in the current $2,500 contest being sponsored by the National Council of Jewish Women, Inc., is December 31. All college seniors are eligible and should confine their essays to the topic, "The Meaning of Academic Freedom."

In addition to the first prize, there are additional awards of $1,000 for second place and three prizes of $500.

Judges include Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, Dr. Ralph Bunche, Nobel prize winner; Thurmon Arnold, former U. S. Attorney General; Mrs. Douglas Horton, former president of Wellesley College, and Dr. Abram L. Sachar, president of Brandeis University.

Rules and entry certificates may be obtained from the National Council of Jewish Women, 1 W. 47th St., New York 36, N. Y.

Klothes Drive Closes Dec. 19

LEADING CONTENTENDERS at half time in the "Miss Rag Doll" contest are Thelma Reagan, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Ann Sweeney, Alpha Delta Pi. The contest, which is a part of the Klothes for Korea drive, will end this Friday.

Results of the drive have been disappointing thus far, with very few students having participated in the project. It is hoped that during this final week, every member of the student body will make an all-out effort to bring in clothes for Korea. Clothes should be left in the Conference Room, second floor of the Student Union Annex.

sciences, humanities and other fields of specialization are now being accepted from college seniors expecting to enter graduate school in September.

Applications may be submitted now to Dr. Lawrence D. Folkemer, director of Religious Activities for the University and liaison officer for the Foundation. The fellowships may be used in any recognized graduate school and applications for renewals will be considered by the Foundation.

The 10th Annual Press Photographers of America pictorial contest, sponsored jointly by the National Press Photographers Association and Encyclopedia Britannica, is now open. To be considered, photographs must (See SCHOLARSHIPS, Page 3)

A student panel of Estelle Stern, Jesse Murphy, Sue White, and Fred Tomlinson have worked for two weeks on questions on the theme of the incoming administration's attitude towards foreign policy. Their discussion will be moderated by Prof. Harold Ludden of the Political Science Department.

World Traveller

Mr. Agronsky's career as world traveller and reporter has led him into many an historic situation. His first experience as a correspondent for the Palestine Post was followed by "on the spot" coverage for British and American newspapers of the last days of the Spanish Civil War. His voice was first heard regularly by American listeners in 1939 when he made several memorable broadcasts from European trouble centers, such as Geneva, Bucharest, Belgrade, Athens, Sofia and Ankara.

War Correspondent

He was present during the "touch and go" months of British weakness in Libya, and during the retreat from Singapore to Java. The commentator was one of the first American war correspondents with Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Australia. He flew with the first British bombers to attack Brindisi, Italy.

Agronsky covered all battle fronts until September 1942 when he returned to this country to make a successful lecture tour. Agronsky covered the last League of Nations meeting, the United Nations Dumbarton Oaks conference and the first United Nations Security Council deliberations.

White House Contacts

Since 1943 Mr. Agronsky has held the important position of ABC's Washington correspondent. His contacts in the White House, State Department, and on Capitol Hill enable him to speak with an accurate and often a "behind-the-scenes" authority on the news that he interprets.

In March 1945, Mr. Agronsky was given a citation and awarded the Asiatic-Pacific Service Ribbon by General MacArthur for "sharing the hardships and dangers of combat with United States troops." In the Heywood Brown Memorial Awards for 1948 given by the American Newspaper Guild, Mr. Agronsky received a commendation for his "consistently high standard of radio broadcasts."

This is the first in the annual forum series co-sponsored by the International Relations Club, counselled by Professor Ludden, and Hillel, directed by Rabbi Aaron Seidman.

Correction

AN EDITORIAL IN last week's Hatchet, entitled, "On Jan. 20," stated erroneously that final exams would be held on the day of the Presidential Inauguration. However, this problem of conflict had been foreseen by University officials. No exams have been scheduled for Tuesday, January 20. (See Exam Schedule, pages 6-7.)

Troubadours Give 'Sneak Preview' Of Northland Trip

BEFORE FLYING OFF to military bases near the North Pole, the Traveling Troubadours will give a sneak preview tonight in Lisner Auditorium of their program. Tomorrow night, the Glee Club, combined with the U. S. Air Force Band, will give the fourth presentation of Handel's "Messiah."

3 Air Cadets Help Fly C-45 To Alabama

LAST FRIDAY at a little past noon, three AFROTC cadets, Lenny Wineglas, Horace Davis, and Ivy Fitzwater, joined three members of the University's AFROTC staff for a C-45 flight to Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala.

Col. Walter Bryte, Maj. Robert Shubert and Capt. William Smith accompanied the cadets on the third of a series of practice flights and the first overnight hop. The six men returned at about 6 p.m. Saturday.

Cadets at Controls

The 770-mile trip took slightly over five hours, with each cadet having a chance to navigate and fly the twin-engine Beechcraft for an hour. In addition, they also charted the entire flight plan for the trip down and back.

Arriving at Maxwell Field late in the afternoon, the cadets had Friday evening free, and stayed at the Bachelor Officers' Quarters for the night. Saturday morning, they assembled at the base and toured the base, getting a good look at the control tower, the weather station, the maintenance shops and the operational (logistics) desk.

'Wonderful Break'

On the return flight, Wineglas, Davis and Fitzwater again received practical experience in handling the plane.

Captain Smith noted that all Air Science II and III cadets are eligible for training flights, either in the Washington area or farther away. The Captain added that "George Washington's cadets have a wonderful break, being so near a big base like Bolling Field," and said, "Cadets, at a lot of universities must travel over 100 miles to reach the nearest large base."

In line with Captain Smith's statement, approximately 25 other cadets took a field trip tour of Bolling Field Friday afternoon.

Civil Service Slates Exam

THE CIVIL SERVICE Commission has announced an examination for Student Aid Trainee, paying $2,950 and $3,175 a year. Most of the positions are located in various federal agencies in Washington, D. C., and vicinity.

The examination is open to college sophomores and juniors majoring in chemistry, physics, mathematics, metallurgy, meteorology and various branches of engineering. Appointments will be for employment during school vacation periods or for periods of employment of students in cooperative courses. Applicants must have completed appropriate college study. A written test will be given. Students who expect to complete the required study by June 30, 1953, may apply. Applications will be accepted until further notice.

Full information regarding the training program and the requirements for applying are available at most first and second class post offices, and at the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Both are Student Council Colonial Programs, starting at 8:30 p.m. This will be the first time the Troubadours have performed for students. There will be no admission charge for either program.

Chorus of Angels

"The Troubadours are comparable to a chorus of angels" commented one base chaplain in Iceland, where the group performed Christmas before last. The commanding officer of Shemya Air Base in the Aleutians wrote "the Traveling Troubadours have enhanced the Yuletide spirit and morale of my men through sacrificing their own holidays in order to make the season more cheerful and pleasant for others." Another officer said the group was a Must for every military base.

Tonight's program will feature both spiritual and popular Christmas music, tunes from "Brigadoon" and "South Pacific" and semiclassical and classical songs.

Song and Dance

Individual acts in the show will include the Colonial Quartet of Dick Hedges, Charles Rhodes, John Parker and Wade Currier; an octet with the quartet and Sandra Stahl, Lois Elliott, Joan Haag and Mary Slotemaker; the Hillbilly Three, Virginia Perrott, Marguerite Moore and C. D. Rhodes; Ted Lynch and Ethel Johnson in a duet; and Pat Reed and Tom Pence in a dance.

For the "Messiah," the chorus will include members of the University Glee Club, Traveling Troubadours, Eldbrooke Methodist Church choir, and the Singing Sergeants of the U. S. Air Force Band.

The soloists are Judith Calender, soprano; Rilla Mervine, contralto; Ivan Genuchi, tenor; and William Jones, bass. Genuchi and Jones are both "Singing Sergeants."

Nationwide Rebroadcast

The Air Force Band will accompany the group. Lt. R. Landers, U.S.A.F., is directing the choral work. Lt. Col. Howard is the director of the band.

This entire performance will be recorded and broadcast over a nation wide hook-up the day before Christmas.

The Troubadours leave December 19 for Newfoundland, Greenland, and Labrador. They have been entertaining service men for the last three years. The December MADEMOISELLE, "Top-of-the-World-Christmas," tells about their trips to MATS bases around the world.

• LOST A RING of keys; Monroe Hall, Room 100. Joy Nimnom, EM. 2-5640.

Airmen Look For Sponsors

• APPLICATIONS FOR the AFROTC Flying Cadet Sponsors will not be accepted after the Christmas holidays. Girls who are interested have been asked to contact any one of the thirteen girls who have already been chosen. Those chosen as sponsors are: Lyn Henderson, Bobbie

Engineers Donate for Xmas Fund

• WITH CHRISTMAS here again, the Engineers' Council, in keeping with its annual tradition, is sponsoring the Engineers' Christmas Toy Fund.

The Toy Committee, under the chairmanship of Bob Burns, has solicited each of the engineering societies and fraternities on campus. The contributions made have been appreciatively received and are as follows: ASCE—$3.22; ASME—$6.63; AIEE—$2.25; IRE—$3.00; Sigma Tau—$6.40; and Theta Tau—$3.50. Total contributions to date are $25.00.

It was believed this year that better disposition of the collected sums could be made if only one person purchased the toys, rather than a member of each organization buying toys with money collected in his group.

The toys will be presented to the school this week and then in turn presented to the Doll House, sponsored by Radio Station WRC, to provide children of less fortunate circumstances with toys, to help make Christmas morning this year a merry one.

Moore, Ann McLeod, Marilyn Tate, Ginny Leetch, Peg Obeir, Lala Mathers, Sue Middlebrooks, Maureen Scanlon, Louise McDavitt, Pat Sampson, Ann Lamoureux, and Carol Fuller.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

They're made better to taste cleaner, fresher, smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Because Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—cleaner, fresher, smoother taste... Be Happy—Go Lucky!

FOR A CLEANER, FRESHER, SMOOTHER TASTE...

Be Happy—GO LUCKY!

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

While searching for a smoother smoke,
I found a tasty treasure—
It was a firmer Lucky Strike
With deep-down smoking pleasure!

Sailors Cop First Place In Frostbite Regatta; Georgetown Second

UNIVERSITY SAILORS RACE TO VICTORY
... among the top four of the Middle Atlantic

by Jim Merow

• G. W. SAILORS BECAME three-time winners by taking the top spot in the fifth annual Potomac Frostbite Regatta sailed this past weekend on the Anacostia River. Matching their performance in 1947 and 1949, the Colonials once again add their name beside the other winners, Boston College in '48 and the Naval Academy in '50 and '51.

The gun for the first race sounded at one o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and the seven boats in A Division started their beat to the windward mark. Buff skipper John Dodge, won the race, and hopes were high that the hometown crew would be easy winners. The race committee, however, didn't seem to share in this hope, as in the next A Division race a Rhode Island protest against G.W. was sustained; and G.W.'s B Division skipper was disqualified for hitting a course marker. This left the Colonials with no points for the second race; and with only one more race to go, Rhode Island wound up Saturday's competition in first place—ten points ahead of the fourth-place Colonials.

Sunday witnessed a repeat performance of the Buff's second-day rout in the Midwest Championship. C.W. skippers Dodge and Schrenk set the pattern by winning both the A and B Divisions of the fourth race, and went on to place no lower than second in all the remaining races. The Colonials moved into the lead after the fifth race and successfully defended their position for the last two races.

Dodge and Schrenk, who seem to be experts in coming up from behind, accounted for only 28 points in the first three races, while piling up 47 points in the same number of races on Sunday. They added 14 more points in the last race to put the Colonials safely on top of the fleet—8 points in front of second-place Georgetown.

The Regatta win brings the fall intercollegiate sailing season to a most successful end. The Buff, who has journeyed to New York and Chicago, as well as making the usual trips to the Naval Academy, has built up one of their best records. G.W. ranks as the runner-up to the Midwest Champion and among the top four teams in the Middle Atlantic.

The trophy presentation turned out to be an all-G.W. affair. Not only did the Colonials receive the Marvin-Gorman-Byrd trophy but the individual skippers awards went to Buff skippers. John Dodge, who led the A Division with 46 points, was also the Regatta high-point skipper. He was closely followed by his teammate, Lorenz Schrenk, whose 43 points led the B Division and made him runner-up for Regatta honors. Crewing for Dodge were Joan Feder and Carlene Parker, while Schrenk teamed with Ann Sweeney and Lou Hains.

Final point totals were: George Washington 89, Georgetown 81, Rhode Island 72, Lehigh 69, Bowling Green 61, St. Joseph's 59, and Maryland 56.

Scholarships

have been published between March 1, 1952, and March 1, 1953. The competition will be judged in the following 11 classes: picture portfolio (newspaper), picture portfolio (magazine), picture story (newspaper), picture story (magazine), spot news, feature, pictorial, sports, portraits and personalities, sequence photos (magic eye) and color.

Prizes will include various publications of Encyclopaedia Britannica and cash.

Talk, Lesson Head Dance Programs

• DANCING ENTHUSIASTS are in line for two treats this week. Tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Hedi Pope, professional dancer and instructor, will speak on "The Advantages of Professional Training in the Field of Physical Education." The session will be held at 4 p.m. in Building J.

On Thursday at 7 p.m., also in Building J, there will be another free social dance lesson.

Mrs. Pope is expected to draw on years of experience as both a student and teacher of dance to discuss professional physical education training.

She received her early dance training in Vienna and later studied with many outstanding artists, including Hanya Holm, Charles Weidman, Doris Humphrey and Jose Limon. Mrs. Pope also holds degrees from Miami University and Wellesley College and has danced on the concert stage and on Broadway.

This program is sponsored by the Department of Physical Education for Women.

The free social dance lessons offered weekly by both the Dance Production Groups and the Student Council have been received enthusiastically, according to several group leaders.

This week, there will be four 20-minute sessions, each emphasizing a different kind of dance. There also will be instruction in foxtrot and waltz for beginners.

These lessons are a good time to learn samba, rumba, tango and jitterbug, according to Student Directors Steve Luke and Claudia Chapline. Incidentally, they report that this free instruction is as good, if not better, than that which would cost as much as $30 from a professional studio.

13 Invited to 'Smarty Party'

• THE TRADITIONAL "SMARTY Party" will be held today at Woodhull House at 4 p.m.

This annual event is sponsored by Mortar Board, senior honorary for women, as part of its yearly project. The "Smarty Party" is given to recognize scholarship in University junior and senior women with an average Q.P.I. of 3.0 or better. One hundred and three women fulfilling these qualifications have been invited.

Santa Claus will be portrayed by Professor Wilson Schmidt. Advisors for Mortar Board are Dr. Muriel McClanahan, assistant Professor of English and Professor Wilson Schmidt of the Economics Department.

KAPPA DELTA'S WINNING GOAT SKIT
... a variety of themes

by Barbara Stuart

• KAPPA DELTA DID it again! Friday night at Lisner Auditorium the sorority won the annual Goat Show for the second straight year with its parody on fraternity life, "Carmen Goes To A Frat Party."

Second place went to Pi Beta Phi for their "Thousand and One Frights," a story of shieks, geniis and an unhappy harum. "Ivanwho?" Kappa Kappa Gamma's take-off on the Sir Walter Scott classic, placed third.

Lisner Auditorium was filled almost to capacity as co-eds and parents gathered to watch the event, sponsored by the Junior Panhellenic Council. It was estimated that about 80 per cent of the audience brought canned goods. This food was then turned over to Jim Gibbon's Country Store for distribution to needy families at Christmas time.

Variety of Themes

William C. Callahan, director of Dramatic Activities, was master of ceremonies. He was assisted in presenting the winning cups by Susan Coletrap, vice-president of Senior Panhellenic. Dr. Vera Mowry, Dr. Calvin Linton and Miss Nancy Nickel acted as judges.

The other skits also offered a variety of themes. Zeta Tau Alpha featured the plight of pledges vainly trying to write a script in their "No Goat Show."

Chi Omega's "Fireman's Gal" was a parody on life in the G Street fire house, and a typical television show came in for laughs with Delta Zeta's "What's My Line?"

The plight of a shiek flunking out of college was the theme of Kappa Alpha Theta's "Harum Scarum," and "House Divided" by Sigma Kappa featured a night with a group of pledges.

Tobacco and chlorophyll also had their places in the show with Alpha Delta Pi's "Tobacco Row," featuring dancing cigarettes, and Phi Sigma Sigma's "The Greatest Success Story of Them All," depicting how a blade of grass changed the scent of the world.

Emphasize Grid Season

Several presentations were made at the end of the show. Colonial Boosters announced Zeta Tau Alpha and Tau Kappa Epsilon were winners in the contest emphasizing the football season.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was presented with a scholarship cup by Sigma Chi, on behalf of the Inter-Fraternity Council.

The award by the Drama Department to the sorority or fraternity selling the most tickets to "The Merchant of Yonkers" went to Sigma Nu.

Junior Panhellenic also presented a bouquet of American Beauty roses to Miss Felicia Miller.

12 Month Xmas

• YULETIDE CHEER pervades; the light-hearted festive spirit of Christmas fills the air. Yet, surveying the world situation, we see a chaotic, topsy turvy world—hot war, cold war, and turmoil.

How are the Korean refugees, the oppressed behind the Iron Curtain, the starving masses in South East Asia celebrating this universal holiday? Will they, too, be winning, dining and making merry? One has only to scan the newspapers, read the current non-fiction, or view the newsreels to see that this is not the case.

We, in the safe, sheltered harbor of the United States tend to overlook or forget the problems of our neighbors throughout the year. Suddenly, the gift-bearing season is heralded! The words brotherhood and charity take on new meaning. Civic organizations choose the time to run clothes drives. Universities propagate charity drives.

World needs become more evident with the advent of hollyberries. Point Four is no longer the principal organization working to alleviate the world's ills. The urgent needs of many of the world's members are recognized. Although an attempt is made to bring relief to the oppressed, unfortunately these needy cases are all too numerous to be adequately covered.

The generosity of these gift-bearers is not being questioned. The sustained Christmas drives to bring world happiness are admirable, and deserving of sincere praise. However, the eleven remaining months of the year must also be lived all over the world. Americans should remind themselves of their friends throughout the year. In this, the land of freedom and plenty, the true spirit of faith, hope and charity could reign supreme.

Perhaps someday, when the spirit of Christmas covers the earth for all of the twelve months, we can say "God rest ye merry gentlemen, let nothing ye dismay."

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Critic Chides Foggy Column

• OBVIOUSLY THERE IS a great need for revision or even elimination of the column "Foggy Bottom." At least a clear redefinition of purpose is necessary. This fall's series have been uniformly worthless, poorly written, uninformative and unfunny. Sometimes I'm sure there is a purpose for this column. The students read it every week, as indicated by your polls, and yet I have yet to hear a complimentary reference to it.

I once had the pleasure of writing Foggy anonymously, and at that time I considered it well received. I attempted to give the readers what they wanted—gossip and small talk—without injecting the type of bushwah so noticeable in the last few weeks. I can sympathize with the problems of the writer, having undergone them myself. I can appreciate that these problems are magnified by the presence of a byline.

But I cannot sit back and maintain silence after the last insult (Hatchet, December 9). This time Mr. Burton has gone too far. The material is (1) not funny; (2) not informative; (3) not appealing to any more than the 20 or 30 students who were involved; (4) poorly written; and (5) padded.

If you are really as desperate as all that to fill up columns, I hereby volunteer to help you. I will even submit a serial autobiography and give you three to one that it will be more popular than that misbegotten, boring tripe of last week.

Editor's Note: The editors do not favor the weekly appearance of Foggy Bottom. It is maintained as a concession to its appeal as evidenced by the polls. The editors invite further comment on the subject.

Student Pleas Fee

• THE CHERRY TREE seems to have had the same recurrent predicament in the past few years in not having sufficient subscriptions to the annual.

Perhaps the assumption that there will be a sufficient number of graduates in both the undergraduate division and the professional schools to operate on a voluntary subscription level is beyond the practical facts.

I do not think that the CHERRY TREE should be dropped because of insufficient subscriptions. I think the school should appropriate the balance of your deficit.

To be sure that the CHERRY TREE will continue in the future, the University should charge an annual fee for all full-time students and all graduating students.

"Dear Mr. Smoot:

The Dean of the junior college is most happy to inform you that you are no longer on probation at this university. In re-evaluating our records this semester we find that you have a 3.5 overall rather than 0.5 as we erroneously stated in our letter to your draft board last semester. This office is notifying said draft board of this oversight immediately..."

Chapel Loses Hymnals; Tongues Waggle and Hell Opens Its Fiery Doors

by Phyl Bereolos

• COMMENTING ON THE THEFT of hymnals from the school chapel, the paper at Wartburg (yes, Wartburg) College points out: "With an average of more than 300 attending chapel services nightly, nearly 10 stand with motionless tongues, obviously embarrassed... It's no fun trying to join in worship services with one's eyes closed." Amen.

• AT PURDUE, investigations are being conducted on a recent bombing behind the stadium. Because the bomb exploded within a one-mile radius of an Army Ordnance Range, the government will investigate next week. (?) G-2'ers will question people informed on and interested in explosives (good thing we weren't around). All known students with a knowledge of rockets will be asked to give any information that might be of help. The line, in all probability, will form to the right.

Hic!

• ACCORDING TO THE DAILY CARDINAL at the University of Wisconsin, over 5000 students applied for and received official beer cards. Only 5000? What's happened? We remember from our days at Illinois that Wisconsin was the envy of the Big Ten because beer was sold in the student union. Fact. At one game played at Madison, some enterprising Illini put a huge sign over the front entrance of the union proclaiming it "The House That Blatz Built."

• ON DEC. 9, 1925, A Valparaiso freshman was elected "Smiles Queen," the equivalent to today's Homecoming Queen. As hundreds of Valpoites cheered her, a little business transaction was taking place among two "sheiks." One bet that he could win a date from the queen. He did, they fell in love, married, and had a daughter who was a queen at Valparaiso 27 years later. We do not know what reception this will receive from our blase, Washington-wise readers. But for us it belongs in the category of wishing on a star, everyone has a chance to be president, and crime does not pay. So there.

• SAY, GIRLS, have you ever wanted to be the torchy type? Your chance has come. A current fad at Ohio State is imitating a flamethrower. Fire spotters light match, holding lighter fluid in mouth, then spit lighter fluid at match. Not much good for the complexion but check those cra-azy eyebrows!

Forward... and Backward

• SCHOOL OFFICIALS at NYU announced questions of race and religion have been struck from the application forms.

The Gamecock at the U. of South Carolina ran a poll on the controversial question, Should USC be non-segregated? One student, Edward First, felt... "that if Negroes are admitted to Carolina they will become too arrogant. He believes that they should provide their own status. However, if they are morally sufficient, he is ready to accept them." Awful white of him, isn't it?

• WHO WAS IT that said idle minds breed evil deeds? At one fraternity party at the U. of North Dakota, the brothers installed a tape-recorder in the ladies' room, hoping to catch a few incriminating remarks. Gads, what monstrousness! The conversations were disappointing, though they did discover that practically every girl looked in all the dresser drawers in the room. We make no bones about it. This has shaken us. If one cannot have privacy in the little girls' room, where can one? And so to bed...

Quaint X-mas In Lithuania

by A. Vildzius

• CHRISTMAS IN LITHUANIA, many years ago... I can almost hear the church bells solemnly sounding, the singing of Christmas carols. I see the illuminated windows and feel the frosty air, smell the fragrance of Christmas trees with wax candles, though it was long, long ago.

Good horses and comfortable sleighs were always the pride of the young Lithuanian, and at Christmas especially, every boy wanted to have his in perfect shape and condition, because sleigh-riding was one of the most favored entertainments. At this time the young people often arranged sleighing parties that were very romantic, animated and gay.

On Christmas Eve, the children could not see the tree while it was being prepared. The closed door was finally opened, and the Christmas Tree, gleaming and sparkling, appeared in all its glory. Then, in high spirits, they exchanged their congratulations, sang joyous Christmas songs and received their presents. It was the culmination of all their longing and delight. The supper was served after this cheering scene.

Religious Ceremony

The table was covered with a white tablecloth, beneath which a handful of hay was spread, so that everyone could feel a wisp under his plate, as a reminder of the manger at Bethlehem.

When all were seated, the head of the family rose, said a prayer and distributed to all a kind of wafer. Every wafer was then broken in pieces; a little part of it was given to each person present at the meal. After this symbolic ceremony, the gayer part of the meal begun.

It was the custom to have nine to twelve different dishes, and in Catholic families they had to be prepared without meat, milk or butter, because of the fasting on Christmas Eve. One of the most favored dishes was the nut-shaped cookies served with poppy and almond milk. They were called "shleesheekai."

In Protestant homes a roast duck or roast goose was one of the main traditional dishes on Christmas Eve.

Lighting of Tree

After the meal the family and their guests gathered long at the lighted Christmas tree, and even the children were not sent to bed early that night.

The next two days, December 25 and 26, were always holidays. The sleigh ride and the festivities for the children were usually arranged for them.

Thus passed Christmas in Lithuania, for me the loveliest holiday of the year.

Nancy McCoach

by Judy Moffett

• "ME OH MY, HAVE YOU MET! Humm, must be because I'm pinned to a Hatchet editor," explained Nancy McCoach, activity minded candidate for graduation in 1953.

Born 20 years ago in Plainfield, New Jersey, Nancy is undecided about what to do with her future. One thing, however is certain. As soon as she has that long awaited sheepskin, she's off to Trieste for two years with her father. These years are to be devoted to REST and traveling. "I want to see Italy, England, and Egypt. And Paris. Definitely Paris!" Her blue eyes glimmered.

For the past nine months, McCoach—a nickname she acquired from her campaign slogan, "Don't go Pullman, go McCoach"—has been working in Dr. Wood Gray's office in the History Department. "I love working there, and, besides, correcting blue books is one of my biggest thrills." The fiendish look again.

Red-haired Nancy has a most impressive activity list which includes two editorships of the Hatchet, Mortar Board Historian, President of Chi Omega, Activities Director of the Student Council, secretary of Pi Delta Epsilon and vice president of Alpha Kappa Delta, journalism and sociology honoraries respectively.

Nancy has also been membership secretary of Big Sis, Sophomore Class vice president, and Outstanding Sophomore Woman of '50-'51.

An old-time University resident, Nancy lived for a year at Staughton Hall and for two at Strong. "One of my first real adventures happened when I had that corner room on the first floor in Staughton Hall. I used to have late visitors, and one of them threw a knife at me one dark night. This was soon followed by an orange. Later, I had three visits from the police department trying to discover who might want me out of the way."

McCoach also adds linguistics to her many abilities. "I can say two words in Japanese. One means water and the other means just about anything you want, according to the way you accept it. This is what I learned from the year I spent in Japan."

By this time, however, it was seven o'clock, and Nancy had to go and help some professor discover just what his students had learned from their time in his class. So she went, with a hellish little chuckle.

Swedish Film Tells A Story of Violence

by Steve Kraus

• IF YOU LIKE YOUR movies dramatic, wonderfully photographed and magnificently played then there is a treat in town for you right now. Playing at both the Roth's Little and Plaza theaters, the Swedish film "Miss Julie" should please many tastes.

Let's suppose that you are, or would like to be, a drama major. Then you will be interested in knowing that the film is based on a play by Sweden's greatest, world-famous playwright, August Strindberg. Or let's assume that you like your drama gussy and full of action; here, too, "Miss Julie" will please, as it is one series of violent episodes in the lives of a violently living family. All in all, as they say, a cinematic pippin.

The film concerns itself with the life of a young Swedish countess and her love for a coachman on her autocratic father's estate. The action develops with their love's progress against the background of the traditionally feudal ways of the young countess' father versus the pushing social ambitions of the romantic coachman.

Anita Bjork, a stunning Swede in the grand old tradition of such movie queens from the land of the smorgasbord as Ingrid Bergman and Greta Garbo, plays the title role of Miss Julie, the lovely young countess. Her coachman lover is played by Ulf Palme, an actor who for both dramatic talents and looks, can well stand up to the pin-up boys of other lands. One might wish to criticize some of the performances of other actors but that is really difficult in this excellently acted film.

The photography, too, can only be called great. The film seems to have been made on an actual estate in Sweden, and, from what can be seen, that seems to have been quite a way of life.

Dimensions four or three, Cinema or plain old fashioned popcorn, "Miss Julie" is still a wonderful film. Don't miss it.

Chesterfield is Best for YOU!

"THEY SATISFY-AND HOW... in school and out, I've been a Chesterfield smoker for 5 years," says John B. Boyce, financial analyst. "They've got what it takes to give me what I want in a cigarette."

Delts, SX, Phi Alpha Win In Frat Contests

by Marv Rosenblatt and Len Weinglass

• THE FIRST FULL DAY of interfraternity basketball came to a close with four Greek teams looking very impressive. In league B, SX appears to be the team to beat, while a three-way fight for leadership in League A looms between Phi Alpha, PIKA, and Delta Tau Delta. SX easily defeated last year's third place team, SAE, by a score of 41-18; D.T.D. had little trouble in overpowering Kappa Sigma, 32-15; PIKA, last year's second place winner, trounced Phi Sigma Kappa, 49-9; and Phi Alpha outmanned a rugged T.K.E. team, 51-35.

DTT 32; Kappa Sigma 15

D.T.D., led by Roy Schlemmer and Chuck Clark, jumped off to an early lead over Kappa Sig, then coasted the remainder of the way to an easy victory. Schlemmer and Clark highlighted the Delt attack with 11 and 8 points respectively, while the only bright spot on the Sig offense was Marty Solis' 6 points.

AEPI 31; Sigma Nu 28

In the closest game of the day, A.E.Pi shaded Sigma Nu. The tight duel was paced by Jerry Golin's 9 points for the victors and Dick Herr's 11 for the losers.

Phi Kappa Alpha 49; Phi Sigma 9

PIKA rolled over an easy Phi Sig team as Warren Lytle dumped in 18 points to earn the title of highest point scorer of the day. George Caleomeris netted 5 points for the underdogs.

Sigma Chi 41; Sigma Alpha Epi 18

SAE, a powerhouse last year, couldn't muster up enough strength to cope with an overwhelming SX attack. The SX quintet was led by Norb Danz and Jerry Marvel who scored 13 and 9 points respectively. Dick Gasperi of SAE hit for 9 points.

Phi Alpha 51; TKE 35

A smooth Phi Alpha offense got off to an early lead and then saw their advantage whittled away by a scrappy T.K.E. five. The late T.K.E. surge, led by Steve Korchek and Warren Reimer, died midway in the last period and Phi Alpha went on to annex its first victory 51-35. Big Howie Frushick paced the Alphas with 15 points.

TEP 30; SPE 20

Bernie Band scored 12 points to lead TEP to a 30 to 20 victory over SPE. Taylor led SPE with 5 points.

The Independent League

High individual scorers were the feature of the independent games this past week. Joe Boland scored 20 points to lead the ROTC to a 66-32 win over Pharmacy. Joe Pistone and Larry Lerner led Pharmacy, both scoring 9 points.

Earl McLain pumped in 24 points to pace the Alphas to a 52-28 victory over the independents. Kenny Abramson sparked the independents with 11 points. Both the Alphas and ROTC emerged from their victories with 2 wins and no losses to tie for the lead in the independent league.

Cagers Trip VMI, W&L; Get Tripped

• THE COLONIALS won two of their three games this past week to stay in the thick of the Southern Conference scramble with a three and one record. The tall Buff are now fourth in the Conference, and are one game out of first

West Virginia's Mountaineers kept up their home court supremacy by defeating the Colonials, 84-83, last Tuesday, despite John Holup's 30 points and brother Joe's 23. The game was tight all the way, with GW leading, 43-42, at the half. Joe Holup sat out a good part of the second half with four fouls, and this hurt the Colonials greatly under the boards.

The Buff got back on the winning trail Friday night at Lexington, Va., trouncing V.M.I. by 87-66. The Keydets held a 13-12 advantage at the end of the first quarter, but then Center Joe Holup got hot and whipped in ten straight points as the G-Streeters broke a 21-21 tie. Holup kept his eye the rest of the game to wind up as leading scorer with 21 markers. The winners led 38-26 at the half and upped the margin to 60-36 at the end of the third period.

Keeping up their high-scoring average, the Colonials ran over a weak Washington and Lee team, 92-77, Saturday night at Lexington. Once again the Holup brothers led the winners in scoring, as John poured in 23 points and the younger Joe ran up 18. W&L stayed fairly close in the first half and trailed by only 45-38 at intermission, but the outcome was never in doubt as the taller and faster Colonials steadily wore down their opposition.

GW Quintet Battles Leading Contenders In Wolfpack, Duke

by Bob Alden

• OFFENSIVE-MINDED George Washington entertains two of the top contenders for the Southern Conference championship in an important three-game home stand at Uline Arena on Dec. 18, 20, and 22.

The high-scoring Colonials, sparked by their double-wallop—John and Joe Holup, —clash with defending champion North Carolina State on Tuesday, Dec. 18.

The Wolfpack, currently tied with GW for fourth place after having been dumped 51 to 50 by surprising Wake Forest, are striving for their seventh consecutive SC title. State defeated three lesser opponents to jump into an early lead before its upset defeat at the hands of the Deacons.

Since its loss, N. C. State has won two encounters with non-league foes, including an 88 to 75 triumph over a formidable Eastern Kentucky State five last Saturday.

Speight Stars for State

Bobby Speight, 6-foot-6 forward, paces the Wolfpack attack with 20 points a game and his excellent rebounding. Speight alternates in the center slot with 6-foot-3 Mel Thompson, who tallies nearly 20 points per game. Another important cog in N. C. State's operations are Dave Gotkin's floor play and sharp-shooting from the rear court.

The Colonials, averaging 88 points a contest to be in a virtual tie with Duke for offensive leadership, are warring with a team that has limited its opponents to only 57.5 markers a game. Top point-producers for the Colonials are John and Joe Holup with 83 and 81 points respectively in four contests.

The Buff were defeated three times last year by the least-regarded North Carolina State team in six years, but GW seems to have added more to its attack than the Wolfpack; thus the wise handicappers rate the Colonials as one-point underdogs.

GW opposes South Carolina, as yet untested in league play, on Saturday evening at the Uline ice house. The Gamecocks are comparative breathers in this home stand in relation to talent-laden N. C. State and powerful Duke.

The Gamecocks could prove trouble to the Colonials, sandwiched between two such rugged rivals and spearheaded by Jim Gainey, 6-foot-8 sophomore center.

Duke Still Good Without Groat
The Colonials battle the Groatless Blue Devils from Duke on Tuesday evening in another contest that has bearing in SC title contention.

Though Duke misses its sterling all-American Dick Groat, there will be no tears shed by GW in his absence from the Blue Devils' lineup, for it was Groat who humbled the G-Streeters twice last season with his brilliant play.

Duke, which averages a half point more than the Colonials in two fewer games, has a superb offense built around its one-two punch Guard Rudy D'Emilio and Forward Bernie Jnicki.

Basketball Tickets...

• TICKETS FOR the Colonials' home basketball games this year may be purchased either at the Student Co-operative Store from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Mondays, through Saturdays, or at the Uline Arena ticket office from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., also Mondays through Saturdays. Students who have activity books do not have to buy separate tickets for each game. Otherwise the price is $1 for general admission and $1.50 for reserved seats.
